fiduciary relationship to the Corporation, and shall perform his or her duties as a Director, including his or her duties as a Member of any committee of the Board of Directors upon which he or she may serve, in good faith, in a manner he or she reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the Corporation, and with such care, including reasonable inquiry, skill and diligence, as a person of ordinary prudence would use under similar circumstances. In performing his or her duties, a Director shall be entitled to rely in good faith on information, opinions, reports or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, in each case prepared or presented by any of the following:

- (i) One (1) or more officers or employees of the Corporation whom the Director reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented;

A Director shall not be considered to be acting in good faith if he or she has knowledge concerning the matter in question that would cause his or her reliance to be unwarranted.

In discharging the duties of their respective positions, the Board of Directors, committees of the Board of Directors and individual directors may, in considering the best interests of the Corporation, consider the effects of any action upon employees, upon persons with whom the Corporation has business and other relations and upon communities which the offices or other establishments of or related to the Corporation are located, and all other pertinent factors. The consideration of those factors shall not constitute a violation of subsection (i) of this Section.

The purpose of the Conflict of Interest policy is to protect the Corporation's interest when it is contemplating entering into a transaction or arrangement that might benefit the private interest of one (1) of its officers or Directors, or that might otherwise benefit in the private interest of one (1) of its officers or Directors, or that might otherwise result in a possible excess benefit transaction. This policy is intended to supplement but not replace any applicable state and federal laws governing conflict of interest applicable to nonprofit and charitable corporations and is not intended as an exclusive statement of responsibilities.

Section 4. Person of Interest

A person of interest is any person currently being compensated by the Corporation for service rendered to it within the previous twelve (12) months, whether as a full time or part-time employee, independent contractor or otherwise, excluding any reasonable compensation paid to a Director and any brother, sister, parent, ancestor, descendant, spouse, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, mother-in-law or father-in-law of any such person. P.O. Box 383, Spring Grove, PA 17362 PH# (717) 225-0732

Section 7. Addressing Conflict of Interest.

In the event that the Board should establish that a proposed transaction or arrangement establishes a conflict of interest, the Board shall then proceed with the following actions:

- (i) Any interested individual may render a request or report at the Board meeting, but, upon completion of said request or report, the individual shall be excused while the Board discusses the information and/or material presented and then votes on the transaction or arrangement proposed involving the possible conflict of interest;
- (ii) The President, if deemed necessary and appropriate, shall appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement;
- (iii) After exercising due diligence, the Board shall determine whether the Corporation can obtain, with reasonable efforts, a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest.
- (iv) If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, the Board shall determine, by a majority vote of the disinterested Directors, whether the transaction or arrangement is in the Corporation's best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable. It shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement in conformity with this determination.

Section 8. Violations of Conflict of Interest Policy.

Should the Board have reasonable cause to believe an interested person has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, the Board shall then inform the interested person of the basis for such belief and afford the interested person an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose.

If, after hearing the interested person's explanation and after making further investigation as may be warranted in consideration of the circumstances, the Board determines the interested person intentionally failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.

- (ii) The names of the persons who were present for discussions and votes relating to the transaction or arrangement, the content of the discussions, including any alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement, and a record of any votes taken in connection with the proceedings.

Section 10. Acknowledgement of Conflict of Interest Policy.

Each Director, officer and member of a committee with Board-delegated powers shall be required to sign a statement, filed in the Corporation's record book, which affirms such person:

- (i) Has received a copy of the Bylaws, which contain the conflict of interest policy;
- (ii) Has read and understands the policy;
- (iii) Has agreed to comply with the policy; and
- (iv) Understands the Corporation is charitable and, in order to maintain its federal tax exemption, it must engage primarily activities that accomplish one (1) or more of its tax-exempt purposes.

Section 11. Violation of Loyalty/Self-Dealing Contracts.

A self-dealing contract is any contract or transaction between this Corporation and one (1) or more of its Directors, or between this Corporation and any corporation, firm or association in which one (1) or more of the Directors has a material financial interest or is on the Board of that firm, corporation or association. Said self-dealing shall not be void or voidable because such "interested" Director is present at the meeting of the Board or committee which authorizes, approves or ratifies the self-dealing contract if:

- (i) All material facts are fully disclosed to or otherwise known by the other Directors or committee and the self-dealing contract is approved by the interested Director in good faith,

- (iii) As to contracts not approved as provided above and/or the person asserting the validity of the self-dealing contract sustains the burden of proving that the contract was just and reasonable as to the Corporation at the time it is authorized, approved or ratified.

The expenses incurred by such Director or officer shall be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding only upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such Director or officer to repay all amounts advanced if it shall ultimately be determined that he or she is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as provided in Section 9.06 hereof.

Section 5. Permissive Indemnification and Advancement of Expense

The Corporation may, as determined by the Board of Directors from time to time, indemnify to the fullest extent now or hereafter permitted by law, any person who was or is a party to or a witness in or is threatened to be made a party to or a witness in, or is otherwise involved in, any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that he or she is or was an authorized representative of the Corporation, both as to action in his or her official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office or position, against all expenses (including attorneys' fees and disbursements), judgments, fines (including excise taxes and penalties), and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with such action, suit or proceeding. Section 7. Miscellaneous.

Each Director and officer of the Corporation shall be deemed to act in such capacity in reliance upon such rights of indemnification and advancement of expenses as are provided in this Article. The rights of indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by this Article shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which any person seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any agreement, vote of disinterested Directors, statute or otherwise, both as to action in such person's official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office or position, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be an authorized representative of the Corporation and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such person.
